June 25, 1968 - May 8, 2020

Cheryl Elaine Morey was born on June 25, 1968 in Hialeah, FL to Rawlin and Rose Creech. On July 20, 1992, she married her husband, Tim Morey, in Cooper City, FL. They lived in Weston, FL until 2002, then relocated to Maryville, TN. They have 4 children, Christopher, Annie, Daniel and Jonathan; her girls, Julie, Rachel, Jackie.

Cheryl's greatest love was her Savior and she gave Him her all at age 13, at Landmark Apostolic Church on Griffin Road in Davie, FL. She was devoted to her church even after moving to Tennessee and becoming a member of the First Apostolic Church of Maryville. Her life consisted of making a warm, loving home and happy atmosphere for her family, attending church and teaching Sunday School. She was the assistant director of the Blount County Foster Parent Association and fostered over 30 kids. One of her greatest joys was making children happy and feeling loved. She loved cooking and baking, hosting parties, crafting and sewing for herself, her children and others. Cheryl had the biggest heart and was always "doing for others". Her happiest moments were being in church and time spent with her family and friends.

She is survived by her husband, Tim and her children, Christopher, Annie, Daniel and Jonathan; Surviving Siblings: Marie, TC (Larry), Jeff, and Sandy.

She was preceded in death by her Parents: Rose and Rawlin Creech; Siblings: Sid, John, Lee, Rawlin, Randy and her daughter, Sarah Michelle.

She was loved, respected and admired by so many. She will be greatly missed by all who knew her!

The Family will have a Celebration of Cheryl's life at 7:00 pm on Monday, May 11, 2020 at the 1st Apostolic Church of Maryville with Rev. Kenny Carpenter officiating.
